

William Martin at the library

DUXBURY – Bestselling author William Martin will be at the Duxbury Free Library at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 7, to discuss his latest novel, The Lincoln Letter. The event was originally scheduled in February, with a sold out crowd planned, but was postponed due to the blizzard.

Imagine if Lincoln recorded his innermost thoughts as he moved toward the realization that he must free the slaves? And what if that diary slipped from his fingers in 1862? Master storyteller Martin has the answers. He is the author of several best-selling novels including Cape Cod, Harvard Yard and Citizen Washington.

Pulitzer Prize winning author Doris Kearns Goodwin says The Lincoln Letter is "an irresistible combination – a sparkling mystery, intriguing characters, and lively history."

In their continued joint effort to bring stellar literary events to the community, Westwinds Bookshop and the Duxbury Free Library have many exciting author events lined up. For a full listing of upcoming author events, go to www.westwindbookshop.com or check the library website at www.duxburyfreelibrary.org.

The events are free of charge, with tickets available online two weeks before the event. Go to duxburyfreelibrary.org, click on Library Events,
